S. F.-HONOLULU BOAT.

"Now is the time for the Inter-Island Steamship Company to put a steamer on the San Francisco-Honolulu run," said R. C. A. Peterson yesterday. "A good-sized steamer, the dimensions of the steamer China, is necessary, and such a steamer on the local run would certainly pay well. Three trips here every two months would be about right. While on the Coast I found that there was all sorts of interest taken in Hawaii, but travelers want good steamer accommodations and good steamers, otherwise they won't come."

Waterfronters would not be surprised to hear that the American-Hawaian Steamship Company had butted into the San Francisco-Honolulu passenger business. The company plumpcutting out any number of sailing vessels, and is having a good trade. The A.-H. Company not only worked up a big coasting and "round-the-Horn" business, but it also cut into the inter-island sugar carrying trade as well. Waterfronters believe, for SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE. the same reason, that the A.-H. Company might do a little passenger business, putting on a specially constructed craft for that purpose.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, VAN-COUVER (Wash.), Sept. 21.-A number of other officers are involved in the charges on which Captain A. P. Berry is now being tried by court martial at this post. The names of the officers are withheld, but it is whispered that several will soon be called to answer charges of drinking, gambling and loose conduct generally. Lieutenant Louis Aarkell Hamilton of the Tenth Infantry has already been court-martialed in connection with the Berry case. The trial was behind closed doors and the result has been kept secret.

Captain Berry is charged with attempting to break into the cabin of Mrs. Mack, wife of Lieutenant Mack of the artillery, last March, while on board the transport Sheridan. The screams of Mrs. Mack brought assistance, and Captain Berry is said to have been found in the stateroom scantily clothed.
